

Answers for
Sailors, Marines & their families

Search

RSS Feeds | Feedback | Site Map

Make LIFELines your homepage.

Brought to you by the Center for Personal Development and Naval Personnel Development Command

▶ Military Life

In This Section

▼ Joining the Navy

- Benefits
- Core Values
- Life in the Service
- Recruiter
- FAQ's

▶ New to the Military

▶ Military Careers

▶ Basic Life Skills

▶ Education & Training

▶ Pay and Benefits

▶ Personal Finances

▶ Personal Health & Safety

▶ Emergencies/Trauma/Terrorism

▶ Family Life

▼ Travel/Recreation/MWR

- MWR
- Hobbies
- In/Outdoor Recreation
- Single Service Member Liberty
- Trips, Tickets, and Tours
- Travel and Lodging
- FAQ's
- Resources

▶ Relocation

▶ Housing

▶ Deployment

▶ Casualty

▶ Reserves

▶ Retirees

▶ Military Transition Assistance

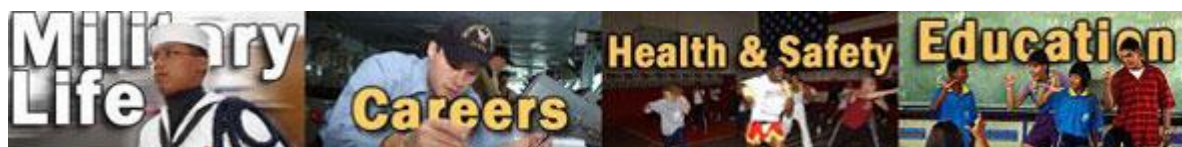

Military Life Resources

Follow these links to special resources outside of LIFELines.

▶ News & Events

▶ Videos & Training

▶ Family Life

Leisure for Less: The Information, Tickets, and Travel Office

By Jennifer Dyer Cornelissen

(Last Reviewed Wednesday, September 07, 2005)

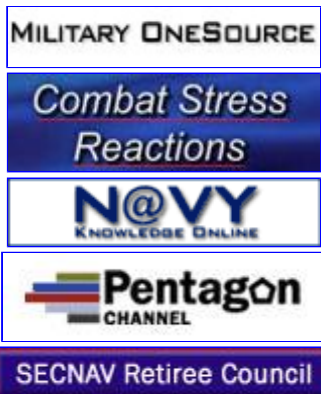

Where can you get discount tickets to a rock concert or sporting event? What if you want to book a cut-rate airline flight and hotel room for a weekend getaway? Look no further than the Information, Tickets, and Travel Office (ITT). Located on many domestic and overseas Navy and Marine bases, ITT offers low-cost tickets to local, regional, and national attractions. It also acts as a full-service travel agency. From Disneyland to Dollywood, from train tours to ship cruises, ITT is your one-stop shop for discount ticket and travel services.

Something for Everyone

ITT is open to active-duty service members, reservists, retirees, and their families. A branch of the Navy's Morale, Recreation and Welfare division and Marine Corps Community Services, ITT offers the following services on most bases:

- 1 ITT sells discount tickets to attractions, including sporting events, concerts, theaters, amusement parks, museums, aquariums, and zoos. It also serves as a Ticket master outlet.
- 1 As a travel agency, ITT can assist with discount hotel reservations, rental cars, and airline tickets, as well as cruises, tours, and trip planning.
- 1 Information on local attractions is also available, including community events, regional brochures, and state maps.

LIFELines Policy on Links

ITT's staff prides itself on the variety and quality of their services. Susan Clark, travel supervisor of the ITT office at the Marine Corps Air Station in New River, N.C., says that employees will do what they can to help clients "find what they're looking for." In fact, each ITT office tailors its services toward local and regional attractions, although you can always contact any office for assistance with a particular area.

Cheap Tickets and Cut-Rate Travel

Many tickets and packages are offered at substantial discounts. Manager Dawn Eden at the ITT office at Marine Corps Base Camp Lejeune, N.C., explains that ITT ensures that service members "get the lowest available fare out there." Even better, travel assistance is as cheap as it gets because there are no cancellation fees or high commissions to pay. So when you purchase tickets or book travel plans in advance at ITT, your savings add up. For instance, you can ride a roller coaster at Six Flags America or take the kids to meet Shamu at Sea World for less than the gate price. Whatever you're looking for, be sure to visit your local ITT office first for a complete price list and details.

Leisure for Less

By providing discount leisure services, ITT shows the Navy and Marine Corps commitment to military quality of life. Getting a good deal on a vacation package or on movie tickets helps families enjoy time together for less money. Plus, ITT is non-revenue generating, which means that profits go back into base recreational services. So when you use ITT, you not only help yourself, but other Sailors and Marines too.

Visit ITT online with the Navy or Marine Corps to learn more about travel and ticket discounts. Some bases also offer individual ITT homepages with local information. You can always stop by your bases ITT with questions or for tickets and travel services.

The next time you're looking for fun, be sure to visit ITT. Whether you're dreaming of a Caribbean cruise or hoping to score tickets to the latest box-office smash, there's something for everyone at ITT.

Printer Friendly

Email This

LIFELines: The Official Quality of Life Delivery Network of the Department of the Navy, serving Sailors, Marines and their families.

About LIFELines | Disclaimer | Privacy | Feedback | Help | Glossary | Plug-Ins | US Navy Website | USMC Website

The Webmaster can be contacted by phone at 202.433.4064 or by e-mail.

LIFELines is funded by the Center for Personal Development, Naval Personnel Development Command, and the Assistant Secretary of the Navy for Manpower and Reserve Affairs.

[Gils Registration Number (UID) 48230]

